CAMBRIDGE WON THE RACE.

Hosts of Americans on the Ground to Witness the Race.

Putney, Eng., Sept. 8.—By a distance of two lengths Cambridge won the great international boat race today, standing off by steady, powerful stroke all Harvard's desperate spurts. The Light Blues had the advantage of choice of stations, which gave them at least a length to the good. They got away ahead and were able to maintain their lead and even increase it.

It was a pretty race throughout. Cambridge went at a tremendous pace, 42 strokes to the minute, at the start, gradually reducing the rate, while the Harvard men hardly rowed above 35. The Light Blues gained stroke by stroke, until by the time Craven Steps were reached daylight showed between the shells. Then the crowd went mad, and it was a hundred to one that Cambridge would win.

As the boats turned the bend and entered rougher water, Harvard spurred. A magnificent effort sent the American boat upon its opponent foot by foot. At Chiswick the English stroke shook up his crew and they began to pull away from Harvard. Harvard was game to the end and fought again, but was too late to retrieve the fortunes of the day.

Cambridge's time was 19 min., 16 seconds. The record for the course is 18 min. 47 sec., made by Oxford in 1893.

Putney, Eng., Sept. 8.—All the members of the Harvard crew had an excellent night's rest and were this morning feeling ready to row the race of their lives and very confident of success. The Cambridge men were no less satisfied that they would be able to carry off the aquatic palm. The weather conditions were ideal, when the two crews turned out early in the day for brief practice starts, their final appearance before the boat race which has caused the greatest excitement ever aroused in Great Britain by any contest over the historic championship course from Putney to Mortlake. Early in the afternoon the banks of the river were lined with people to an extent that promised the greatest outpouring ever witnessed at a boat race. Hosts of Americans were early on the grounds, taking points of vantage to enliven the American crew with the Harvard College yell. Although in some quarters patriotic pride raised Cambridge stock as high as 130 to 80, most of the betting was done at nearer even figures.

Roosevelt Cup Race.

Marblehead, Mass., Sept. 8.—With the New York yacht having two victories and the Boston boat Auk one, it was today or never for the other four aspirants for the Roosevelt cup, including the three German challengers. Under the conditions, only the winner of the fourth race could continue in the contest.

RAILROAD COLLISION.

Two Persons Killed and Ten Injured Near Wheeling, Virginia.

Wheeling, Va., Sept. 8.—Two persons were killed and ten injured in a head-on collision of passenger trains at Woodland, 24 miles south of here on the Ohio river division of the B. & O. Ry. today. The trains came together on the bridge over Fish Creek. Richard Parsons and Edward Wangel, firemen are dead, and Engineer Dillon is fatally injured.

A DREAM SERMON.

Preacher Had Conducted Funeral in a Dream Which Was Later Used in Reality.

Newark, N. J., Sept. 8.—Rev. Oscar H. Braune, pastor of the German

Lutheran church, announced yesterday before he began the funeral services over the body of Miss Frances Lorna Wadsworth, that he would preach as nearly as possible the same sermon as he delivered in a dream two months ago. He said that just two months prior to the drowning of Miss Wadsworth in the surf at Bradley Beach he dreamed she was before him dead, and that he preached a funeral sermon from the text, "Be ye ready also." He related the dream to his wife the following day.

WERNZ ELECTED GENERAL.

Successor to Late Father Martin in the Society of Jesus.

Rome, Sept. 8.—Francis X. Wernz, of Germany, was today elected General of the society by the congregation of the Company of Jesus, in succession to the late Father Martin, who died last May. A messenger was dispatched to the Vatican to inform the Pope of the choice, which to become effective requires the sanction of the Pope. Two ballots were taken before the choice was made. When Father Alfred Maertens, procurator general of the Jesuits, informed Pope Pius of the company's choice, the pontiff expressed great satisfaction. "He is just the man fitted for the position," said the Pope. He charged Father Maertens to take to General Wernz the apostolic greeting and an affectionate letter. Father Wernz comment upon his election was, "God, I am not worthy, but Thy will and that of St. Ignatius be done."

Father Wernz was born at Rothwell, Wurtemberg, Dec. 2, 1842, and at the age of 15 years entered the society of which he was today chosen head. He has been rector of the Gregorian University since 1904 and has published a series of books dealing with most profound questions of canon law. He is recognized in the church as a progressive man, and it is predicted that his election as General of the Company of Jesus will result in the infusion of new life into the organization.

A COMMISSIONERS' COURT.

Atkinson, White and Fritz Act as Judges in Saloon Case.

Walking into the court room today, visitors were confronted with an imposing spectacle—one that overwhelmed them with awe. There, on the high platform, behind the judge's desk, sat Wm. Atkinson, as chief justice, Thos. D. White and N. J. Fritz, associate justices. On the right were the attorneys, W. C. Reid and Robert C. Reid for the prosecution, and E. S. Gibbany for the defense. On the left sat Neighbor Gayle in the chair of the Clerk of Court, and on the right stood Sheriff Woodruff, wearing the larger portion of a green house on the lapel of his coat to help out his expansive smile.

It was the county commissioners in session as a court to hear the defense of Major Locklear, against whose saloon at Lake Arthur a petition had been filed, charging that it was a disorderly place and seeking that the commissioners exercise their right and revoke the license. The trial of the case extended throughout the day. The taking of evidence was a laborious task, and Chief Justice Atkinson handed down his decisions as to what evidence was admissible with all the gravity and solemnity of a supreme court justice. After the hearing, the court got its three heads together, and was not long in reaching a decision, which was announced by Chief Justice Atkinson. The evidence was not considered sufficient to warrant revoking the license. However, the defendant was given a lecture that he would do well to have framed and placed behind his bar.

This is the first time the present county commissioners were ever called upon to sit as a court of justice.
